VICE COMMODORE: STEVE TODD

Greetings all!!

Spring is here and the events are picking up. Looking astern, 150 people were served at the Easter brunch; a great turnout for a great event. Thanks Jimmy for a wonderful spread at a reasonable price. 24 happy kids found every Easter Egg. 53-ish members made work day a breeze! 1 small job was the only thing left on a lengthy list of chores. Only 1 doughnut was left! Good job and thank you!!

Looking ahead, May 5 is Cinco de Mayo, with a build-your-own burrito bar with Beer, Sangria and Margarita specials. Watch your email for the poster. $12.95 plus tax and gratuity.

Our participation in Foolin' Around the Lake was cancelled due to lack of interest.

Mothers day Brunch is May 14! It's not too early to make a reservation. Watch your email for the poster.

Contact Scott Sheets to assist with the May 20 Spring Dock Party.

The club still needs sponsors/chairs for the following events: The Luau, July 22.(minus the band arrangements. Brad Rich is handling those) August 12, Shrimp Boil and Boat Parade. September 16 Dock Party. October 29, Kids Halloween Party and December 9, Adult Christmas Party.

A blues night with the Mojo Cats is planned for June 3! Bring your lawn chairs and enjoy a most wonderful evening!! Thanks to Pat Bumpus for organizing this event.

Thanks to those who have already stepped up to help with the other events!!!

See you at the Club!!

Steve Todd!
